Aquabar "B" Floor Underlayment

Ideal for wood flooring and tile applications!

When you block moisture vapor from creeping behind finish materials or reaching moisture sensitive substrates, you help increase the useful life and appearance of finish surfaces.

With a moisture vapor permanence of less than 1, Aquabar "B" is a superior vapor retarder under wood flooring applications.

Aquabar "B" helps slow moisture vapor originating below the floor system, allowing the wood flooring to acclimate gradually. By reducing the rate of moisture migration, Aquabar "B" protects against moisture vapor relation to floor problems such as buckling, cupping or cracking. As A semi-permeable material, Aquabar "B" is much less likely than common poly film to trap moisture condensation between it and the sub-floor. Aquabar "B" also acts as a "slip sheet" to minimize dust and reduce noise.
